

BBC Lincolnshire – CONCERT MARQUEE

Charlie Russell

Charlie is a talented singer songwriter who lives in Heckinton. He will be at the Concert Marquee for the two days performing his own songs and covers in his own unique style. It is always good to showcase local talent.

Lost Property All Stars

A rock band made up of staff from North Kesteven District Council has released two songs especially for the Council's Wellbeing Service. Lost Property All Stars is a four-piece ensemble, playing a mix of rockabilly, blues and rock & roll.

Lucy Heath and 4 Paws Display Team

Lucy returns to the show after reaching the final of Britain's Got Talent this year with "Trip Hazard" aka Dave! Lucy also won the TV show 'That Dog Can Dance' with border collie Indie. Lucy and her colleagues will demonstrate the versatility and talent of their four legged friends.

The Ruffs

The Ruffs return to the BBC Concert Marquee for both days this year when Trevor Mick and Glyn will present their unique style of excellent Lincolnshire inspired songs. The Band are regular visitors to the BBC appearing on Jono Byrne's show.

Go Dance

Go Dance return this year and are based at purpose built facility on East Road Sleaford where they have fully mirrored dance studio's, dancewear shop and refreshment area. The School offers private lessons, a professional teacher training course, holiday summer schools and children's party.

Miller Magic

Miller Magic was the creation of Jim McQuade Director of Music of Sleaford Concert Band. His idea was to form a band to play the music of Glen Miller. The Band is made up of musicians from the Sleaford Concert Band and has quickly become very popular. They play some of Glen Miller's authentic arrangements and have added to their repertoire with other period Classics and music of the Beatles in Big Band style.

Tennyson Collective

The Tennyson Collective is a brass quintet who deliver a high class repertoire of all genres of music to suit all tastes. The Quintet has appeared on BBC Television and frequently play on BBC Radio Lincolnshire. They have performed in Lincoln Cathedral for the High Sheriff of Lincoln and will perform a varied programme of music over the weekend.

Check out their web site www.tennysoncollective.com

Horticulture Prize Giving Sunday 3.30

The Concert Marquee is pleased to be able to host the Horticulture Prize Giving again this year which will be hosted by a BBC Radio Lincolnshire Presenter.

Wrinkly Rockers

The Wrinkly Rockers provide an excellent finale to the first day of the 149th show with the very best in rock and roll classics and music from the 50's and 60's. The band comprise of musicians who have played in famous bands from the 60's lead by Frank Graves. Their sets are a must see this year.