Heckington & District Agricultural Society

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- The show committee aim to provide a safe, friendly and enjoyable event for participants and visitors.
- We expect anyone visiting the show to conduct themselves with normal common sense, consideration for others and have due regard for both their own safety and that of others around them in the full knowledge that they are visiting an agricultural show under the generally accepted definition of such an event.
- Our Health and Safety Policy is monitored and regulated by the relevant authorities and a copy of the full document is available on site for inspection.

The following terms and conditions apply:

Online Ticket Orders - Tickets purchased online are for entry for the dates stated only and are non-transferable.

Each ticket will be a separate page. Please ensure you have printed ALL your tickets

Only one print out of each ticket can be used and once scanned the tickets are no longer valid

The tickets are electronically validated on entry and subsequent or duplicate presentation constitutes fraudulent use.

You must bring the tickets with you to the show. Please keep them safe and dry. To avoid delays at the gate, the ticket should be presented individually by the user of the ticket

All tickets are valid only for the day(s) shown on the ticket and unless stated only for one day

E-ticket holders will not receive a swing badge in the post - these are only available for direct purchase from the ticket outlets in Heckington village

Lost, Forgotten or Unused Badges/Tickets - No duplicate can be issued or any refund made in respect of any lost, forgotten or unused admission tickets or badges. Exhibitors & entrants should purchase a ticket at the gate and contact their relevant sub-secretary for further information. Refunds are not automatically given and are at the discretion of the Committee.
